SHAREHOLDER ACTIVISM – A NEW GOVERNANCE LANDSCAPE

We are delighted to invite you to a panel discussion and networking drinks hosted by Herbert Smith Freehills on 13 June 2019, exploring the topic of shareholder activism in Asia and Hong Kong.

Our distinguished panel of speakers including BlackRock, Brunswick, Oasis Management, Practising Governance founder and Robeco will join us and share their views on how trends are impacting on listed companies governance, and how corporates should organise themselves to better engage with their key stakeholders in light of the rapidly evolving investment and regulatory environment. Tommy Tong, corporate partner of Herbert Smith Freehills will host and moderate the panel.

Other key themes we will be covering during the evening includes:

- Understanding activism – who are the players and what are their objectives?
- Recent trends globally and in Asia – are Hong Kong companies immune?
- The case for activism – hostile short termism or driver of long term value?
- The role of regulation
- Board readiness and strategy
- The future of activism in Hong Kong

Following the panel discussion, you will also be able to exchange conversations and thoughts with attendees from listed companies, private equity and hedge funds, investment banks, accountants, regulators and financial communications consultants among others at our networking drinks.

We look forward to seeing you at the event. To secure a place, please register by 10 June 2019.
