

(Thurs) 19 June 2025 Event

Navigating Tariffs, AI, Regulatory changes

Speakers' Bios [updated 15 May 2025]

Arthur Shek

Managing Partner

McKinsey HK

Arthur is the Managing Partner of McKinsey's Hong Kong office. He focuses on driving holistic, transformational, and sustainable change at companies especially in Hong Kong and Mainland China, and also has extensive experience operating in Asia as a whole. Over the years, Arthur has led many transformation efforts with multinational financial institutions, local conglomerates, as well as public organizations. The topics Arthur advises on include strategy, digital, innovation, organization and culture change, capability building, mergers and acquisitions, and others.

Arthur holds an BA in Economics from the University of Cambridge, and he is a Past President of the Oxford and Cambridge Society of Hong Kong. Arthur is passionate about Hong Kong, and is a member of the Financial Services Development Council, the Better Hong Kong Foundation, and the Vision 2047 Foundation.

Arthur is active in local youth development. He is a Co-Founder of the Melo Program, a not-for-profit platform dedicated to empowering youth in Hong Kong through bridging them meaningfully with leaders in business and society. Arthur also sits on the Board of Junior Achievement Hong Kong, is a frequent speaker on youth and business technology topics, and advises various startup companies.

Steve Lo

Asia-Pacific Chief Innovation Officer
EY

Steve Lo is EY's Asia-Pacific Chief Innovation Officer. He leads a team across EY Asia-Pacific to foster and drive innovation through ideation, incubation and adoption of disruptive technologies and business models that deliver sustainable transformational benefits to clients. Steve also leads the EY Innovation Tech Lab located in China, and is a member of the firm's Global Strategic Innovation Group which oversees and upholds innovation initiatives across EY globally. Lo has over two decades of professional service experience in business performance improvement.

With over two decades of experience advising global organisations primarily headquartered in Asia, recently in the innovation domain, Lo started his consulting career with a global tech consulting firm in Toronto upon obtaining his Engineering Master's from the University of Toronto, and subsequently joined EY as a Partner in 2008.

Chair, speaker for regulatory

Wendy Yung

Founder

Practising Governance

Wendy is an advocate for good corporate governance in Hong Kong. Prior to founding “Practising Governance” for this cause, Wendy was Executive Director and Company Secretary of Hysan Development.

Wendy is also an independent non-executive director of Vitasoy International Limited (listed on the Stock Exchange of Hong Kong), and a co-opted member of the Hospital Governing Committee of Queen Mary Hospital/Tsan Yuk Hospital. In addition, she sits on various committees of the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the Hong Kong Chartered Governance Institute, having served as co-opted council member and council member of the institutes respectively.

Over the years, she had served as a member of the Listing Committee of the Stock Exchange of Hong Kong, the Standing Committee on Company Law Reform, and the Professional Accountants in Business Committee of the International Federation of Accountants.

First trained as a solicitor, Wendy also qualified as a certified public accountant and a governance practitioner in Hong Kong. She graduated with First Class Honours in Law from Oxford University, United Kingdom.